SCOUTS HAVE GREAT TIME AT REUNION Richmond Scouts Drum and Bugle

FINE TRIP TO FREDERICKSBURG

Orps had a great day at Fredericksburg on Thursday. At the head of the Grays the twenty-five scouts, clad in their khaki uniforms with drums and bugle, assembled in front of the Grays' Armory early Thursday morning. With instruments shining and colors dying they myseled to Pro-

them, were delighted with the excellent manner in which they conducted the ment bridge tests. Executive Weaver has been busily engaged for the past three weeks in threading out Richmond's best men to compose this faculty. The idea is that the men thy test should not only be profiteent along the special line in which they are to instruct and examine the Scouts, but affeciently interested in a ws to give the artention.

The idea of having such a treulty is to give the arsticlass Scours in Richmond an opportunity to breaden out along one or more of the lifty seven various subjects as outlined in the foot.

To become a lay Scout menus to do things. Besides the work for tender foot, second and direct assat slegrees, tatte is outlined a course of lifty seven things. Besides the work for tender foot, second and direct assat slegrees, tatte is outlined a course of lifty seven the subjects. The completion of the work outlined in the course me has the granting of a special badge by milongal bendguarters to the Scout, twenty-one of these badges being secured entitles the worker to en engle Scout award attainable.
